MILITANT LEADER IN COMMAND

In Charge of Suffragette Movement Only a Short Time

IMPRISONED BY POLICE

Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst Again in Durance Vile—Destructive Bombs Found in Women's Headquarters—Create Scene in the Court.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) London, July 8.—The brief respite in the militant suffragette agitation ended, today when Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst resumed command of the forces of the Women's Social and Political Union at their London headquarters.

Mrs. Pankhurst, who reoccupied the offices at noon, was, however, permitted to remain in active command of the militants for only a very brief period. When she emerged from her headquarters to go to lunch the police pounced on her and took her to Holloway jail.

Simultaneously with the reappearance of Mrs. Pankhurst a violent scene was created in the central criminal court where H. F. Alice Hall, Miss Grace Roe, Miss Julia Jameson and Miss Ellen Armes were brought up for trial for conspiracy. The charge against them was "conspiring with others maliciously to commit damage and injury and to spoil certain real and personal property of the liege subjects of Our Lord the King."

The prisoners had been arrested during a raid on a West End flat on May 21.

In their rooms were found a new shrapnel grenade of ingenious manufacture, coils of fuse and plans of houses with instructions how to reach them and as to the usual movements of the police in the vicinity.

Miss Roe and Mrs. Hall when brought into court surrounded by women wardens refused to plead. They threw papers and pens from the prisoners' enclosure and shouted a commentary on their treatment in Holloway jail. Two policemen and five women attendants started to carry them out of court to the cells below. When the judge decided to proceed with the trial in the absence of the two women Mrs. Hall threw herself on the floor and kicked several policemen and it took some minutes to remove her.

The other prisoners pleaded not guilty.

The women wore stockings over their shoes in order to deaden the noise and hide their footprints. The arrested woman gave her name as Janet Arthur. She created a scene when arraigned at the police court, fighting the wardens and shouting quotations from Burns' poems. She was remanded.

Opposition to Foundations Of Rich Men, Developed at National Educational Meeting

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) St. Paul, Minn., July 8.—With harmony in the ranks of the National Educational Association assured, as a result of the withdrawal from the presidential race last night of Dr. David B. Johnson, of Rock Hill, S. C., and L. R. Alderman, Portland, Oregon, in favor of Dr. David Starr Jordan, the convention today put aside political activities and held thirty-two meetings for the discussion of different phases of the present system of education.

That Dr. Jordan, whose selection for the presidency was assured by the withdrawal of Dr. Johnson, will be unanimously elected at the annual business session tomorrow was made certain by the elimination of Mr. Alderman. Supporters of the Oregon man issued a statement late last night announcing that they had at the urgent request of Mr. Alderman, withdrawn his name and united with others in making unanimous the choice of Dr. Jordan.

Committees reported today, and speakers discussed salaries, mental tests for children, school gardens, use of moving pictures in schools, sex hygiene and other problems, segregation of mentally deficient children was raised in a paper read by Dr. Franklin W. Barrows of Buffalo, New York medical inspector of schools, before the department of special education.

Children who are teachable, also those above the stage of idiosyncrasy should be gathered into special classes under expert teachers.

Dr. Barrow said: "Children not in schools should be inspected regularly by experts. The home life of sub-normal and

CONFESSED TO MURDER OF FOUR-YEAR-OLD GIRL

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Chicago, July 8.—Boswell C. F. Smith, a salesman, today confessed to the murder of 4-year-old Hazel Weinstein last night.

Smith, unaware that some of his actions in the alley back of the shop kept by the girl's parents had been observed, carried the body into the store, explaining that he had found it. "See, this was in her mouth," he said, exhibiting a gag on which the child had choked to death. At this point the witnesses appeared and Smith was arrested.

JOHN T. MACK

EDITOR OF SANDUSKY REGISTER DIED SUDDENLY THIS MORNING AT AGE OF 69

Was Trustee of Ohio State University and President for 25 Years of Ohio Associated Dailies.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Sandusky, July 8.—John T. Mack of Sandusky, a striking figure in Ohio journalism for the past quarter of a century, is dead. After a prolonged illness from Bright's disease, he passed away today at his home, aged 69 years.

He was a trustee of the Ohio State University and served continuously as president of the Ohio Associated Dailies for 25 years. He was one of the principal founders of the organization and the fact that he was each year chosen its head evidenced the high esteem in which he was held by its members.

Mr. Mack was the owner and editor of the Sandusky Register, one of the most active Republican papers in the state. His brother, the late Col. L. F. Mack, a brilliant writer, was the editor of the Register for many years, retiring several years ago, when John T. assumed editorial charge.

Because of Mr. Mack's illness, his son, Egbert S. Mack, has been in charge of the paper for some months. Although prominent in the councils of the Republican party Mr. Mack never sought political office. He was a vigorous writer and fought courageously for the principles in which he believed. His funeral will be attended by newspaper men from all over the state.

AUTOMOBILES IN COLLISION; TEN INJURED

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Portland, Ind., July 8.—Then persons were injured, two of them seriously, early today when two automobiles attempted to pass at a cross road near here. W. R. Reed, a banker is not expected to recover.

Mrs. Ora Swarner, also is believed fatally injured. Other victims of the mishap are Mrs. John Mills of Columbus, Ohio and her daughters, Miss Martha and Ruth; Mrs. George Smith and Everett McGriff.

It is said the accident resulted when each car tried to pass in front of the other at the crossing, their routes being at right angles.

MURDER IS NO LONGER A MYSTERY

Is Belief of District Attorney in Commenting on Bailey Tragedy

ARREST WILL FOLLOW

Clues Obtained Today—Witness Testifies He Saw Woman in White Fire Shot Through Window of the Physician's Office.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Freeport, N. Y., July 8.—Gaston Boissonault, manager of the detective division of a company which manufactures telephone devices to record conversations, was the first witness called today at the resumption of the inquest into the death of Mrs. Louise Bailey. Mrs. Bailey was mysteriously shot a week ago Tuesday night while in the office of Dr. Edwin Carman of Freeport.

It was Boissonault's company that installed a telephone device in Dr. Carman's office some time before the murder at the order of Mrs. Carman. The witness told today of the first call of Mrs. Carman at his office. She first said she was a dressmaker, then admitted her identity, adding that she had many domestic troubles and wanted to hear what went on in her husband's office. This was on May 19.

The witness said arrangements for the rental of the instrument were made that day. On the same day Mrs. Carman made plans to take her husband away for two days while the instrument was being installed.

"The witness said Mrs. Carman had told him about seeing a nurse kiss Dr. Carman. "She said she was so mad," he went on, "when she saw that kiss that she almost broke the windows by knocking on it."

Mrs. Carman told him further, he said, that she knew her husband met many women both in his home and outside and she asked the witness whether he could furnish detectives to follow him. She had said emphatically, however, that she would not get a divorce, on account of her daughter.

The witness said one of his instruments was installed after he received a letter from Mrs. Carman announcing when she would have her husband out of the way. Later Mrs. Carman demanded and received this letter. Mrs. Carman and her mother called upon him on May 25, said the witness. Mrs. Carman told him she "was satisfied" and that she had been keeping in a diary a record of everything she had heard over the instrument. She said, she said, had some difficulty in hearing all that went on in the doctor's office because the doctor and his women patients sometimes whispered. She bought two additional batteries on this occasion. Boissonault declared many instruments had recorded Mrs. Carman's conversations with him, and he was then excused.

Elizabeth Carman, 12 year old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Carman, testified that directly after the shot was fired she ran upstairs and saw her mother, her aunt, and her grandmother there. Her mother, she said was in a kimono.

PRES. WILSON

HOLDS IMPORTANT CONFERENCE WITH CHICAGO'S LEADERS OF INDUSTRY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Freeport, N. Y., July 8.—That the murder of Mrs. Bailey on Tuesday of last week in the office of Dr. Edwin Carman was no longer a mystery is the belief of Lewis J. Smith, district attorney of Nassau county. Tomorrow Mrs. Smith will appear before the grand jury and according to a statement made by him he will ask that an indictment be returned against the person he suspects of having killed Mrs. Bailey.

The presentation of the case before the grand jury will go on, no matter what verdict is given at the coroner's inquest. It will be resumed today before Coroner Norton and promises to be an interesting session. District Attorney Smith and Sheriff Pettit have eliminated Norton as a co-worker in the case, it is said, but despite the split the prosecutor will be present to ask questions of the witnesses and the sheriff will be ready to start out on any new clues that are developed.

Detectives today were running down a new theory of the killing that was advanced in Freeport yesterday. This was to the effect that a New York gunman played a part in it, that he broke the glass of the window looking upon Dr. Carman's office, handed the gun to the slayer, took it back after the shooting and then escaped with it.

For some reason this theory was regarded by both official and unofficial investigators as more worthy of credence than any of the other wild stories which have been drifting about Freeport ever since the night of the shooting.

Several subpoenas have been issued

Mrs. Carman, Wife of Doctor in Whose Home Mrs. Bailey Was Murdered, and Her Dictagraph

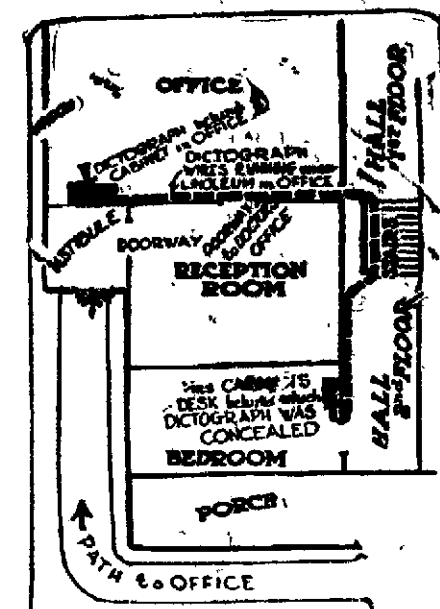

Diagram Showing How a Doctor's Wife Spied on Him When Women Patients Called, With the Aid of a Dictagraph From His Office to Her Bedroom on the Floor Above.

Mrs. Edwin Carman, wife of the Freeport, L. I. doctor in whose home Mrs. William Bailey was assassinated, is a handsome woman, as her photograph shows. Mrs. Bailey called on the doctor, who says he did not know her, and after spending an hour was about to leave with a prescription he had given her. A hand smashed the glass of the window of the office on the ground floor and a pistol was pushed through and Mrs. Bailey was shot dead.

The mother and sister of Mrs. Carman say that at the time the doctor's wife was lying on her bed in a room upstairs suffering from a headache. They went down when they heard the shot, leaving her there.

Mrs. Carman, it developed later, had been jealous of her husband. She had seen him kiss a nurse in his office. She did not like the visits of women there. So she had a dictagraph installed from his office to her bedroom, and she often listened to his conversations with women patients. On the occasion of Mrs. Bailey's visit, she said, she was not listening.

The dictagraph was put in a few weeks ago from a cabinet in the doctor's office to a desk in Mrs. Carman's bedroom. Shortly after the killing it was torn out and hidden. When detectives in the house found the wire Mrs. Carman did not hesitate to tell the whole story of having it placed in the house.

Strike Pickets and Troopers Working Side By Side in Pittsburg; First Disorder

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Pittsburg, July 8.—Stanley Flialek formerly employed in one of the Westinghouse factories, last night told one of his friends, jokingly he afterward declared, that he was going back to work today. Soon after midnight he was rescued by the crew of a street car from three men on Braddock avenue who had beaten him into insensibility. Two arrests were made and Deputy Sheriffs and State troopers were looking for the third assailant. There was no change in the strike situation in the strike district. Again state troopers and strike pickets worked side by side in the streets and company officers said they had more men in the shops than at any time since the strike was called. Pickets intercepted a number of men brought from Cleveland and induced them to return, paying their way. The general strike committee prepared another offer of settlement for presentation to E. M. Herr, president of the electric company, when he returned from New York. Intense excitement followed the first daylight disorder of the strike when William Strang, a foreman in the electric works was stopped by a crowd of men as he approached the shops by an obscure path. His skull was fractured by a brick and he was otherwise injured. State troopers were hurried to the place, and three arrests were made.

Captain Adams immediately widened his lines, and mounted troopers throughout the morning were patrolling every street leading to the different plants.

HOLDS IMPORTANT CONFERENCE WITH CHICAGO'S LEADERS OF INDUSTRY

Financial Situation of Country Discussed as Well as Administration's Anti-trust Program.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Washington, July 8.—An important conference for a discussion of the industrial and financial situation of the country as well as the administration's anti-trust program was staged for the White House today. President Wilson had an engagement to discuss these matters with a delegation of business men representing the Chicago Association of Commerce. The interview had been sought by the Chicagoans. Today's conference had been arranged as the second of a series of talks which President Wilson plans to have with captains of industry and finance to learn their views and give his own on business conditions as well as measures pending in congress. The first of these informal conferences was had with J. P. Morgan last week.

The Chicago delegation included: John V. Farrell, wholesale dry goods dealer; J. M. Barnes, of Marshall Field and company; Thomas Greigh of the Cudahy Packing company; L. A. Goddard, of the State Bank of Chicago; Joseph H. Defrees, lawyer; Ezra Warner, wholesale grocer; W. E. Clow, iron and hardware dealer; A. W. Shaw, publisher; Cornelius Lynde, Jr., lawyer and J. T. Pirie, Jr., dry goods merchant.

TWO FOUND DEAD UNDER HOOD OF AN AUTOMOBILE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Patchogue, L. I., July 8.—Edwin Bailey, a former state senator, and John Brooks, both of this place, were found dead today under the hood of Bailey's wrecked automobile on the outskirts of the village. Apparently they were driving toward town when the automobile skidded and turned over. Bailey was one of the most prominent Democrats in Suffolk county and was a deputy state conservation commissioner at the time of his death.

RECEIVER FOR BALL-FINTZE CO. OF THIS CITY

On application of Herman Boker & Company, of New York, filed in common pleas court late Wednesday, Attorney Charles Montgomery was appointed receiver of the Ball-Fintze company, of Newark. Bond of $50,000 was required by Judge Jewell, of Delaware, who made the appointment.

The plaintiff's application gives no figures of assets or liabilities, merely declaring the company insolvent by reason of a large amount of debts which it is alleged to be unable to pay.

POSSIBILITY

THAT BOTH WET AND DRY AMENDMENTS MAY RECEIVE A MAJORITY.

In Which Case Each Would Nullify the Other, Says Attorney General Hogan.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Columbus, July 8.—If by chance both the wet and dry constitutional amendments, one forbidding statewide prohibition and repealing the Rose county option law and the other establishing state prohibition, should receive a majority of votes cast at the November election, each will nullify the other, in the opinion of Attorney General Hogan, expressed informally today.

Several theories have been advanced and given some credence in political circles that the amendment which received the most votes, in case both received a majority of votes cast, would become effective. This was denied by the attorney general today.

Mr. Hogan said only an unintelligent voter would vote for both amendments on the ballot since they provide for directly opposite conditions. Many probably will vote against both, however. If neither should receive a majority of votes cast on the amendments, conditions would remain as they are now.

CITY ALONG BORDER TO BE CHOSEN

For Proposed Conference Between the Mexican Factions

NO FOREIGN INFLUENCE

Desired at Meeting So That Mexican People Will Be Satisfied in the Selection of New Chief Executive—Await Answer from Carranza.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, July 8.—Mexican territory probably will be chosen for the scene for the proposed conference between Huerta's envoys and constitutionalist delegates over plans for the establishment of a provisional government. Constitutional representatives in Washington today expressed preference for a neutral place in Mexico, probably along the border—for the peace parley. Two of the Niagara mediators—Ambassador Dagana and Minister Suarez—were to confer in New York today over details of the meeting. With the discussion among the constitutionalist leaders apparently nearing adjustment, members of the revolutionary junta here repeated expressions of confidence that the proposed Huerta-Carranza conference would take place.

While the constitutionalist agents here have not determined on any particular place for the meeting, yet it is known that in discussion of the republic's internal affairs, they desire that there shall be no appearance of foreign influence. They wish to divorce the proposed conferences from any relation to the Niagara mediation proceedings, so that the Mexican people may thoroughly understand the method by which their new chief executive is agreed upon.

Nuevo Laredo, Mex., has been considered as a most likely choice for the scene of the parley. It is opposite Laredo, Texas, where quick communication by telegraph and cable can be arranged with Mexico City for the Huerta delegates. Communication southward with constitutionalist headquarters also would be easy.

All troops would be withdrawn from the scenes of the peace conferences so that the delegates of both sides should be free from local influences.

Members of the constitutional junta said today that an answer from General Carranza as to participation in the conferences would arrive within another week.

CARRANZA AND VILLA SETTLE ALL TROUBLES

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Torreón, Coahuila, Mex., July 8.—The Carranza-Villa reconciliation conference completed its last session last night, although it had been announced that all matters at discussion had been settled satisfactorily on Monday. It was understood that the purpose of drawing up a statement to be made public, outlining what had been done at the conference.

It was predicted by Roque Gonzalez Garza, a Villa man who has been acting as one of the secretaries of the conference, that the statement would bring about a complete understanding between Villa and Carranza.

PROHIBITION WORRIES IOWA CONVENTION OF PROGRESSIVES.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Des Moines, Iowa, July 8.—The prohibition question promised to develop a vigorous contest in the Progressive state convention here today, with both the wet and dry leaders claiming victory before the formal opening of the session.

There were indications that a resolution endorsing submission of prohibitory amendments to both state and federal constitutions would be presented.

It was expected that the platform would not be reached until late today.

ATTEMPT TO DESTROY BIRTHPLACE OF BURNS.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Glasgow, Scotland, July 8.—An attempt to destroy the cottage at Ayr, where Robert Burns the poet, was born, June 25, 1759, was made just before daylight today by two members of a militant suffrage arson squad. The two women were surprised at night watchmen as they were in the act of placing large bombs against the doors and windows of the poet's birthplace which is venerated as a shrine by the Scottish nation. The man captured one of the militants but the other escaped.

The Contest

Mrs. J. N. H. R. F. D. No. 4, Newark, who asks that her initials only be printed, sends to the Advocate this highly appreciated letter:

"I wish to thank the Advocate for the recent contest in which I took an active part. The pleasure derived from studying the pictures and talking them over with my friends amply paid me for the time spent. It was my first experience and although I am not a winner, having had, but thirty-three answers right on my coupons, I had many more written down but missed the very easiest ones, such as Under Two Flags, The Wolf, The Fisherman, etc. Thinking they were too easy I substituted other answers and lost, but am not going to kick about it. I always did hate a kicker anyway. It seems to me that some of the criticism is so unjust. For instance, picture No. 70, the man lying on the ground, certainly has his 'back to the foot.' I think the trouble is they had another answer they thought was right, and so refuse to see that another could be just as good or better. The brickbats and knockers remind me of a few lines I heard some years ago. They are:

"Laugh, and the world laughs with you;

"Knock, and you go alone.

For the cheerful grin will let you in,

Where the Kicker is not known."

"I like many others, would like another contest in the future, but think a suggestion would not be out of place. I would suggest that you start earlier in the winter, so we would have the long winter evenings to study the pictures. Thanking the Advocate for its kind attention in answering questions, I am yours truly."

Miss Flora H. French, 1384 South High street, Columbus, writes: "The contest gave me quite a lot of pleasure and trust the Advocate will consider another contest at an early date."

Dr. A. H. Seeley, 1183 Livingston avenue, Columbus, writes: "I have enjoyed the contest very much. I missed the first prize only by elimination of my answers. A few years ago I won one of the Columbus Dispatch prizes. As you may know my prize in your contest (Bliss College Scholarship) is of no value to me in its present condition. Can you help me to dispose of it?"

Mrs. H. N. Dixon, 2226 North High street, Columbus, says: "We enjoyed the contest very much and outside of two or three pictures being far fetched we thought the pictures very good."

Mrs. H. B. Anderson, 52, Eighth street, Newark, being the owner of a camera, has no use for the one now in the Booklovers' contest and will dispose of the camera upon attractive terms.

Miss Minnie C. Loy, 572 East Rich street, Columbus, writes: "I have read your 'Brickbats' and 'Bouquets' and enjoyed same. Had every picture right but the last one but was unfortunate in elimination. The last one No. 70 was the most clever of the lot, though, I considered Nos. 9, 12, 32, 42 and 69 also very clever. Hope you will have another contest. If you do I certainly shall be in it."

J. J. Conroy, 32 East Poplar avenue, Columbus, O., says: "I take this opportunity to say to you that I have been in several similar contests but this one was the fairest and squarest I ever saw or had the pleasure of taking part in. Also that during the entire contest I never missed an issue of the paper for which you are to be commended. The only thing I regret is that the printer had my name under my picture, 'Conroy' when it should have been Conroy. As I am not the owner of an automobile would you kindly suggest how I might dispose of the auto hat covers in Newark?"

Dr. C. W. Reelhorn of Pataaskala, sends this letter to the Advocate: "Please accept my thanks for the valuable premium I won in the Advocate Booklovers' contest which has just ended. I have been in other contests but I consider the Advocate's the fairest that I have ever seen. I think every contestant owes the Advocate thanks for the fair way in which the contest was run. Wishing you all success in the future and again thanking you."

By mistake the name of Mrs. Frank Ashcraft, 252 Boylston avenue, was omitted from the list of prize winners. Mrs. Ashcraft has 56 correct answers and was awarded a prize.

RECALLED BY ACCIDENTAL DEATH OF COL. F. L. DENNY OF THE MARINE CORPS.

Officer Fell Over Balustrade While Walking in His Sleep Early Today.

Washington, July 8.—Colonel Frank L. Denny, retired, of the marine corps, was almost instantly killed early today when he fell over a balustrade in his home to the floor below. The report to the police said he was walking in his sleep.

Colonel Denny's family believe he was seized with an attack of vertigo with which he was subject and fell while moving about the house. He struck his head upon a marble top table on the lower floor of his home, crushing his skull. When a physician arrived he was beyond help. The colonel's daughter awakened by the crash, found her father dying where he had fallen. The coroner gave a certificate of accidental death.

Colonel Denny was one of the storm centers in a row in the marine corps three years ago, in which it was charged that a number of staff officers in Washington were controlling the corps. Former Secretary Meyer of the navy department after an investigation, ordered all the officers concerned to distant posts, sending Colonel Denny to San Francisco. Early in his administration President Wilson returned all to Washington. Colonel Denny was prominent in the social and club life of the capital.

BADLY BURNED AT HOME NEAR GRANVILLE, O.

(Special to the Advocate.) Granville, July 8.—While burning paper in the fire place of an old outbuilding at the home of her father, William Powell, on the Lancaster road near this city, Miss Minnie Powell met with a very painful accident. After making the fire she discovered that she had unintentionally placed an old coat among the burning waste papers. Thinking to save the coat which was already burning, she seized it to drag it from the flames and severely burned her hand and arm. Dr. E. P. Cook was immediately summoned and attended the injuries of the young lady.

BOTH MAY DIE AS RESULT OF AN EXPLOSION

(Associated Press Telegram.) Suffolk, Va., July 8.—With his left hand blown off and the flesh torn from his right leg and his skull fractured, Sheldon Vaughan, 10 years old, son of a prominent jeweler, was today hovering between life and death in a hospital here.

The youngster was wounded by the explosion of a shell, supposed to be a relic of the Mexican war, with which he was playing yesterday. It had been around the Vaughan home for years. The explosion was caused by the boy's hammering of the cap with a stone.

DIVORCE IS INCREASING IN LICKING

Clerk Horton's Annual Report Shows Saving in Prosecutions—Summary on File Early.

The divorce rate in Licking county is on the increase, and what's more, dissatisfied wives are in the majority by a considerable number. Criminal business, while comparatively light during the past year in the county courts, has been transacted at an exceedingly low cost to the county.

These facts are brought out indisputably in the annual report forwarded to the secretary of state by County Clerk Bert O. Horton, who on Wednesday completed the exacting task of compiling a summary of court business for the year in accord with requirements of Sections 2895 and 2896 of the general code of Ohio.

Clerk Horton's report is several days ahead of time, as the statement for the year ending June 30 does not have to be filed until July 15. The report is extensive, covering business of the common pleas and court of appeals.

Fifty-eight divorce suits were brought by wives and 34 by husbands. Cases still pending, 40; cases decided within the year, 52; cases brought within the year, 75; cases pending June 30, 17, all under the divorce heading. That this is a great increase over 1913 is shown by last year's report of 24 cases brought and 8 decided.

The fines assessed by the court during the year, $150 is reported, $1 which $100 is given as the amount probably collectable.

A total of $2,506.67 was taxed by Clerk Horton in criminal cases during the year $1,454.22 of which was taxed against defendants. The total amount of costs in criminal cases taxed during the year just ended is $1,433.10 less than the preceding year, showing criminal business to be far less expensive. There were no forfeited recognizances.

During the year 490 judgments for a total of $127,400 were rendered by the court. Two hundred and sixty-eight were for money only while 222 included other than money. The judgments averaged $260 each.

The total number of judgments rendered exceeded the preceding year by 200, and the total amount for which they were rendered was two and one-half times the amount of the year preceding.

During the year juries were paid a total of $5,322.20, of which grand jurors received $688.85, civil jurors, $3,593.35; criminal jurors, $1,050. The amount paid for the year was $88.35 less than in 1913.

Eighteen indictments were pending at the beginning of the year and 27 were brought within the year. Fifteen were disposed of, leaving 30 pending. These were on prosecutions for crimes against the person. In property prosecutions, fifteen were pending under indictment at the beginning of the year and 25 were brought within the year. Fourteen were disposed of, leaving 26 still pending.

In prosecutions against public peace, health, justice, policy, chastity and morality, eight were pending at the beginning of the year, fourteen were brought within the year, twelve were disposed of, leaving ten still pending.

The total number of criminal cases pending July 1, is 91, of which 25 are awaiting the September grand jury. Only four inquests were filed by the coroner during the year; to males and two females.

Under the head of civil cases the report shows 307 were pending at the beginning of the year. 511 were brought within the year, 330 were disposed of leaving 428 still pending.

Forty cases were taken from the common pleas to the court of appeals and five to the supreme court during the year.

Forty-three cases are pending in the court of appeals, which is five less than last year.

Six persons were granted naturalization papers during the year. Four were Hungarians, one German and one Turk.

LAD THROWN FROM HORSE BADLY HURT

Has Bone Broken Above the Knee—Nervous Items of Interest From Thriving Little Hamlet.

Puffly, July 8.—Jack Gatz, who lives with Mr. and Mrs. Leeding Stout, was thrown from a horse recently and badly hurt. He and Harold Jones, both on one horse, were riding along the road when a dog ran out and frightened the horse.

Both boys were thrown off, one on each side of the horse, which stepped on the Gatz boy's leg and broke the bone above the knee. The accident occurred in front of Homer Van Weyer's residence. The boy bore his suffering with exceptional bravery and was so calm about it his companion thought he was joking when he said his leg was broken. He is getting along nicely and is resting as comfortably as could be expected.

Mrs. Nellie Lewis entertained the Concord embroidery club at her home Thursday afternoon. Delicious refreshments were served, and a short program composed of music and readings was rendered by Misses Sissie Jones, Arlie Reynolds and Elizabeth Elliott. The guests of the club were Miss Marie Colville and little Miss Katherine Elliott.

Mr. and Mrs. William Jones were guests of friends in Newark from Friday until Sunday.

Dayne Hawke attended the automobile races at Moundbuilders' park Saturday and visited Buckeye Lake same day.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Van Winkle entertained the following guests at dinner Sunday: William Baughman and family, and Misses Gladys and Sara Hamilton.

At the last meeting of the Board of Education here, Mr. Paul Colville was employed to teach the school at Summit this year.

Clarence Chilcote traded horses with Mr. Alpha Stout one day last week, then sold to Carl Lewis the horse obtained from Mr. Stout.

About the only thing in the economic life of the English workingman that did not rise in cost last year is rent. This is due to the high emigration, even among the best class of workers.

John T. Mack is Dead.

John T. Mack, publisher of the Sandusky (Ohio) Register, died this morning. The announcement carried by the wires into newspaper offices over the state was not unexpected, as Mr. Mack had been ill for many months. Though friends in newspaperdom knew of the fatal character of his sickness, Mr. Mack was cheerful and was hopeful to the end.

For more than a quarter of a century Mr. Mack was president of the Ohio Associated Dailies, an organization of which almost every daily newspaper in Ohio was a member. He was a director in the Ohio Select List of which this newspaper is a member and was also a director in the Gilt Edge List, a national organization of newspaper publishers.

John T. Mack was every inch a man—able, clean-cut, big-hearted, honest, faithful. His popularity and capacity are attested by the honor conferred upon him year after year by his fellow newspaper publishers. The world was made brighter and better by John T. Mack. In his death Sandusky loses a splendid citizen and the newspaper fraternity a loyal and efficient member.

The Law's Delays.

When the Supreme Court of the United States adjourned for July and August, it left but fourteen cases undecided. It gave out 591 judgments since last fall. There has been a popular impression that the court was slow, but this record indicates that the movement for abridging the law's delays is bearing fruit.

To the lawyer, legal delays are part of the day's work. The fact that a client's case has gone over to another court term does not bother him. He may rather rejoice at the postponement, as giving him more chance to collect winning evidence. Also it gives the other side a chance to perfect their game.

To the business man, however, litigation is a most harassing interruption. The losses are not measured simply in adverse judgments and fees of lawyers and sheriffs. Equally serious are the worry and uncertainty of the thing.

Once the business man crosses the threshold of the court, he feels ground through a machine whose Nothing hampers business like uncertainty.

It (trust program) will not be postponed, because we are the friends of business.

I, as a friend of business and a servant of the country, would not dare to stop in this program and bring on another long period of agitation.

I can not get rest if you send me to bed wondering what is going to happen to me in the morning; but, if you send me to bed knowing what the course of business is to be tomorrow I can rest.

It is a matter of conscience, as well as a matter of large public policy, to do what this congress, I am now certain, is going to do—finish the program.

Just as soon as it (business) gets that leave and freedom there will be a boom of business in this country such as we have never witnessed in the United States.

THE ONE THEME

You talk of Pope and Byron, of Milton, Keats and Scott, and I admit I'm tired of all that kind of rot; you say the world is richer sure Shakespeare said his lays, to Jones, our south paw pitcher, you give no word of praise. Through running after running he pitched a less game, and yet he come here spinning to talk of Wordsworth's fame. You speak of Alexander and say he was a brick that stored old commander who sighed for worlds to lick; I fear there's nothing in it, this plawing o'er his bones, and at the present minute my thoughts are all of Jones. Your rusty ancient heroes were doubtless wearing bells, your Hannibals and Neros, your dapple William Tells but they are dead and planted, long since they met their fate, and I am now enchanted with Jones, whose curves are great. Of statesmen and of thinkers you come to spout a while, and they are surely clinkers when tommyrot's in style, out statesmanship is musty, and thinkers are a bore, when Jones, the true and trusty is making batmen sore. Forget the printed pages, the wreaths and halls of fame, forget the bards and sages, and come and see the game!

Four Years Old. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bebout, 63 Hoover Street, Newark, O.

This little girl's picture has been entered in the "Temple of Childhood" at the San Francisco exposition.

A Hudson avenue child while riding through the country last week saw a "bunch" of fine Duroc hogs. Not being much of an agriculturalist the little fellow cried: "Look, daddy, those pigs stayed out in the rain and got all rusty."

If we all are, indeed, "but children of a larger growth," most of us lack the frankness of the little three-year-old in the following story told by a Granville woman: Little Robert, aged three years and two months, who resides with his parents in Sioux Falls, S. D., recently went to Sabbath school for the first time, accompanied by a neighbor's little girl. When he was fully equipped for this adventure into the big world, his mother tied a neckerchief and pinned the handkerchief to his blouse with a beauty pin, carefully admonishing him to drop the money into the collection box. When he returned, the handkerchief was still safely anchored to his blouse, but the nickel was in his pocket. "Why, Robert!" exclaimed his mother in surprise, "Why didn't you give the money to the Sunday school as I told you to do?" "Oh, I just wouldn't let the lady have it," replied the young financier. "Sunday school only gets a cent and I told her I had to buy a violin at the ten cent store, and wanted the nickel myself."

When six year old Felix returned from school his father inquired how things had gone that day and asked if he had been given 100 by the teacher. "No," was the reply "but I saw how she marked some of the slates and I made a whole slate full of hundreds for myself."

Little Mary Jennette, aged four and a half, was leaning on her mother's knee and listening with absorbed attention to a graphic and detailed description of our legal holidays, what they are, when they occur, and so forth. Christmas Day, New Year's Day, Decoration Day, etc. Mother frowned. That the calendar was full and the information fairly complete. Not so the tin maid. "And mother," she asked eagerly, "When is Stork Day?"

Both questions were answered in short order by James Murphy, West Main street grocer, and Edward Schaller, of Schaller Bros., Tuesday evening on their return from a fishing trip on Buckeye lake.

Both vouch for the truth of reports that their catch numbered 16 splendid bass, not one weighing less than two pounds—for the fishes all had scales! On landing their boat, one of the fishermen undertook to haul in his string of fish, when to his consternation, etc., the line parted on the near side of the fish. With the exception of one fine specimen grasped by Mr. Schaller during the get-away, the whole string departed for their respective homes.

"Talk about fishermen's luck," quoth they, "—! xyz, etc."

Mr. Murphy choked up and could not articulate for fully ten minutes, and then what he said was a plenty. His clerks this morning didn't even mention fish and the Murphy fishing tackle has been laid upon the shelf, there to remain until the popular groceryman takes his annual jaunt to Brevoort lake when he promises to take along a lock and chain to hold his catch.

Washington, July 8.—Declaring it would be unfair to regard the Democratic party as the enemy of big or little business, President Wilson today gave out a statement in support of Paul Warburg of New York and Thomas D. Jones of Chicago, his nominees for the federal reserve board.
President Wilson's statement follows:
"It would be particularly unfair to the Democratic party and to the Senate itself to regard it as the enemy of business, big or little. I am sure that it does not regard a man as an object of suspicion merely because he has been connected with great business enterprises. It knows that the business of the country has been chiefly promoted in recent years by enterprises organized on a great scale and that the vast majority of the men connected with what we have come to call big business are honest, incorruptible and patriotic. The country may be certain that it is clear to members of the Senate and it is clear to all thoughtful men that those who have tried to make big business what it ought to be are the men to be encouraged and honored. Whenever they respond without reserve to the call of public service.
"I predict with the greatest confidence that nothing done by the Democratic majority of the Senate of the United States will be of a sort to throw suspicion upon such men. Mr.
Jones and Mr. Warburg, in manifesting their willingness to make personal sacrifices and put their great experience and ability at the service of the government without thought of personal advantage, in the organization of a great reform which promises to be so serviceable to the nation, are setting an example of patriotism and of public spirit which the whole country admires. It is the obvious business of statesmanship at this turning point in our development to recognize ability and character, wherever it has been displayed and unite every force for the upbuilding of legitimate business along the new lines which are now clearly indicated for the future."
The President said today he earnestly hoped Mr. Warburg would reconsider his decision not to accept the nomination and that he was urging him to do so.
He expressed confidence that Mr.
Jones would be confirmed.

FEAR BUBONIC
PLAGUE IN OHIO
RIVER CITIES
East Liverpool, O., July 8.—Dr. E.
W. Obetz of the Ohio board of health, here today put in force plans for a state-wide destruction of rats because of the bubonic plague situation at New Orleans. By his direction, Mayor Jacob Schreiber set aside Friday and Saturday next as rat extermination days, particular attention being paid to rat breeding spots. All rats killed, he ordered, must be cremated. Dr.
Obetz suggested that the authorities take steps to prevent down river boats from tying up at the wharf, and that all merchandise received by water be examined. From here Dr. Obetz went to Steubenville and other Ohio river points where a similar war is to be waged.
DEATH OF MRS. SCHUYLER.
New York, July 8.—Mrs. Katherine Beckman Schuyler, wife of Montgomery Schuyler, who is well known among magazine writers and art critics, died at her home in New Rochelle last night. The immediate cause of her death was a paralytic stroke on June 15. She was born on June 28, 1841.

CAMBRIDGE TO

the afternoon.
On Tuesday afternoon in playing for position in the Newark club's standing, Dorey defeated W. C. Miller, 4 up 3 to play, while Manning defeated Hollander 8 up 6. The standing of the first five men is now:
1 Manning.
2 Rod Miller.
3 Hollander.
4 Dorey.
5 W. C. Miller.
H. P. Scott, one of the players who qualified for the July cup tournament will leave for Chicago tonight and will not enter the tournament.
His withdrawal leaves just 22 who have qualified, making it possible for E. C. Wright, Malcomb Nosker, J. M. Mitchell and Dr. J. A. Mitchell, who were tied at 99, (a total of 33 players under 100), to draw for pairs in the tournament match play, without playing off the tie by medal score rounds to eliminate one.

CITY LIBRARIAN WILL REMOVE TO EVANSTON, ILL.

Mrs. Eliza Rankin, who has been at the head of the Newark Public Library for a long period, and to whom, more than any one else the success of the institution is due, will leave about September 1, for Evanston, Ill., where she will make her home with her son Woodruff Rankin, who is in business in that city. Her loss to the library will be severely felt, and in other spheres of activity her place will be difficult to fill.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY.
The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Fifth Street Baptist church will be held on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Stevenson and Miss Anna White, on the Columbus traction line west of the city. Rev. and Mrs. B. F. Palt formerly of Newark, now of Ottumwa, Iowa, who have been in attendance at the Great Northern Baptist convention, recently held in Boston, will be present, and give a report of those meetings. The club would like to have as many of the men, as well as the women, who would like to hear Mr. and Mrs. Palt be present, all who are going who have not conveyances of their own, take the 2 o'clock car. The fare will be twenty cents the round trip. A good attendance is desired.

ROOSEVELT TO WRITE OF BRAZIL

A noteworthy newspaper achievement is the securing of Theodore Roosevelt, as a regular contributor by the Pittsburgh Sunday Dispatch. The strenuous one will tell in graphic style all the adventures of his tremendous trip of thousands of miles through the hitherto unpenetrated Brazilian wilderness, and he will give to readers of this paper first-hand view of the wonderfully valuable photographs taken by Kermit Roosevelt and others as well as a close insight to the remarkable scientific facts discovered by him.
"The River of Doubt," now the most famous stream in the world, will be described during the course of the series, which will be a long one and most fascinating. The former president is holding nothing in reserve in his stories, but is giving all the facts and experiences which he has withheld from the public until the appearance of this series. He tells the story in his own clear-cut, energetic, open-eyed style. It is handled in characteristic fashion all the distance.
This wonderful series starts next Sunday, July 12. It will continue indefinitely—even the redoubtable Teddy does not know how many installments it will take to tell the story—and may be found only in the Pittsburgh Sunday Dispatch.

Seeks Separation.
A youthful marriage which has carried its trail of unfortunate situations, was aired in Probate court Tuesday afternoon. The plaintiff is Alta Martin, aged 19, and the defendant is Elmer E. Martin, aged 20, both of Newark.
They were married one year ago last May and have one child.
The husband first sued for divorce and custody of the child. The trial heard by Judge Hunter Tuesday was on the wife's cross petition for divorce, custody of the child and alimony.
A number of witnesses and spectators from Newark and the northern part of the county were present. Mrs. Martin was represented by Ralph Priest, while Col. J. V. Hillard was counsel for the husband.
Charges in the suit are sensational in several instances.
Divorce Petition.
In Probate court late Tuesday, Attorney J. W. Horner filed suit for divorce for Hazel M. Snelling against Morris V. Snelling, in which the wife charges her husband with alleged cruelty. Judge Hunter granted a temporary injunction restraining payment of money due the defendant from the B. & O. railroad company. They were married May 23, 1909, and have one child 4 years old.
